Reply to Bobalition of Slavery

DIAGNOLE between Scipio and Cato, and Sambo and Phillis, occasioned by reading the accents of Bobalition of Slavery, as detailed in a letter from Cesar Godbo, to his friend Marco Mushy, residing in the country, dated

Brock, Feb. 24th, 1846, 9 o'clock, A.M.

My Name Excel lent,

My dear and good frend, I am sure ere this you have receivd my last letter, and I believe my inattention to your letter was occasioned by the new business of Bobalition of Slavery, which you have a long time been conversing upon. I have been so much taken up with other affairs that I have not had opportunity to read the pamphlet. I am sure it is a subject of great importance, and I am very glad to hear that you are so deeply interested in it. I trust it will have the desired effect of arousing the public mind to the necessity of abolishing slavery. I am very much inclined to believe that it is a moral and religious duty to do all in our power to abolish this evil institution. I hope you will write me soon and let me know your sentiments on this subject.

Yours sincerely,

Cesar Godbo
